4. (1) No promoter shall issue an advertisement or prospectus, offering for sale any apartment or plot or inviting persons who intend to take such apartments or plots to make advances or deposits, unless,-

Issue of advertisment or prospectus

- (a) the promoter holds a certificate of registration under sub-section (2) of section 19 and it is in force and has not been suspended or revoked and its number is mentioned in the advertisement or prospectus;
- (b) a copy of the advertisement or prospectus is filed in the office of the competent authority before its issue or publication; and
- (c) the promoter holds a valid licence under sub-section (3) of section 5 of this Act for the colony or the building, as the case may be.

(2) The advertisement or prospectus issued under sub-section (1) shall disclose the area of the apartments or plots offered for sale, title to the land, extent and situation of land, the price payable and in the case of colonies, also layout of the colony, the plan regarding the development works to be executed in a colony and the number and the validity of the licence issued by the competent authority under sub-section (3) of section 5, and such other matters as may be prescribed.

(3) The advertisement or prospectus shall be available for inspection at the office of the promoter and at the site where the building is being constructed or on the land being developed into a colony, along with the documents specified in this section and in section 3.

(4) When any person makes an advance or deposits on the faith of the advertisement or prospectus, and sustains any loss or damage by reason of any untrue statement included therein, he shall be compensated by,-

- (a) the promoter, if an individual;
- (b) every partner of the firm, if the promoter is a firm;
- (c) every person who is a director at the time of issue of the advertisement or prospectus, if the promoter is a company:

Provided, however, that such person shall not be liable if he proves that-

- (a) he withdrew his consent to become a director before the issue of the advertisement or prospectus; or
- (b) the advertisement or prospectus was issued without his knowledge or consent, and on becoming aware of its issue, he forthwith gave reasonable public notice that it was issued without his knowledge or consent; or
- (c) after the issue of the advertisement or prospectus and before any agreement was entered into with buyers of plots or apartments, he, on becoming aware of any untrue statement therein, withdrew his consent and gave reasonable public notice of the withdrawal and of the reasons therefor.

(5) When any advertisement or prospectus includes any untrue statement, every person who authorised its issue, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to two years or with fine which shall not be less than five thousand rupees but which may extend to fifty thousand rupees, or, with both, unless he proves that the statement was immaterial or that he had reason to believe and did upto the time of issue of the advertisement or prospectus believe that the statement was true.

5. (1) Any promoter, who desires to develop a land into a colony or intends to construct a building, shall make an application in the prescribed form alongwith the prescribed information and with the prescribed fee to the competent authority for grant of permission for the same and separate permission shall be required for each colony or building.

Development of land into colony and construction of building.

(2) On receipt of the application under sub-section (1), the competent authority, after making enquiry into the title to the land, extent and situation of the land, capacity of the promoter to develop the colony, layout of the colony, conformity of the development of the colony with the neighbouring areas, plan of development works to be executed in the colony and such other matters as it may deem fit, and after affording the applicant an opportunity of being heard and also taking into consideration the opinion of the prescribed authority, shall pass an order, in writing, recording reasons either granting or refusing to grant such permission.

(3) Where an order is passed granting permission under sub-section (2), the competent authority shall grant a licence in the prescribed form, after the promoter has furnished a bank guarantee or security by demand draft or fixed deposit equal to twenty five per cent of the estimated cost of the development works certified by the competent authority and the promoter has undertaken to enter into an agreement in the prescribed form for carrying out completion of development works in accordance with the conditions of the licence so granted.

(4) The licence granted under sub-section (3) shall be valid for a period of three years and may be renewed thereafter for a period of two years at a time on payment of prescribed fee.

(5) The promoter shall enter into agreement undertaking to pay development charges for development works to be carried out by the Government or a local authority.

(6) The competent authority shall determine the development charges and the time and the manner in which such charges referred to in sub-section (5) shall be paid to the Government or the local authority, as the case may be.

(7) The promoter shall construct or get constructed at his own cost schools, hospitals, community centres and other community buildings, on the land set apart for this purpose or transfer such land to any local authority or institution or person, upon payment of actual cost of developed land, as may be fixed by the competent authority, on such terms and conditions, as it may deem fit:

Provided that if having regard to the amenities which exists or are proposed to be provided in the locality, the competent authority is of the opinion that it is not necessary to provide one or more of such amenities, it may exempt the promoter from providing such amenities, either wholly or in part, on such terms and conditions as it may deem fit.

(8) The promoter shall, where the total area of the colony is forty bighas or more, reserve at least five percent of number of residential plots and apartments, for being sold or leased to such persons belonging to such economically weaker sections of society, in such manner and on such terms and conditions, as may be prescribed.

(9) The promoter shall carry out all directions issued by the competent authority for ensuring due compliance of the execution of the layout and the development works therein and to permit the competent authority or any officer authorised by it to inspect such execution.

(10) The promoter shall be responsible for the maintenance and upkeep of all roads, open spaces, public parks and public health services until the date of transfer thereof, free of cost to the local authority or association.

(11) In the event of the promoter contravening any provisions of this Act, or rules made thereunder or any conditions of the licence granted under sub-section (3), the competent authority may, after giving an opportunity of being heard, cancel the licence and enforce the bank guarantee furnished by the promoter under sub-section(3).

(12) When a licence is cancelled under sub-section (11), the competent authority shall cause to be carried out the development works at the risk of the promoter, and after adjusting the amount received as a result of enforcement of bank guarantee or security, recover such charges as the competent authority may have to incur on the said development works from the promoter and the allottees in the manner prescribed as arrears of land revenue.

(13) The liability of the promoter for payment of development charges referred to in sub-section (12) shall not exceed the amount the promoter has actually recovered from the allottees less the amount actually spent on such development works as assessed by the competent authority, and the liability of the allottees shall not exceed the amount which they would have to pay to the promoter towards the expenses of the said development works under the terms of the agreement of sale or transfer entered into between them:

Provided that the competent authority may, recover from the allottees, an amount in excess of what may be admissible under the aforesaid terms of agreement of sale or transfer for the completion of development works in their entirety.

(14) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, after development works have been carried out under sub-section (12), the competent authority may, with a view to enabling the promoter, to transfer the possession of, and the title to, the land to the allottees within a specified time, authorise the promoter by an order to receive the balance amount, if any, due from the allottees after adjustment of the amount which may have been recovered by the competent authority towards the cost of the development works and also transfer the possession of, and the title to, the land to the allottees within the specified time and if the promoter fails to do so, the competent authority shall on behalf of the promoter transfer the possession of, and the title to, the land to the allottees on receipt of the amount which was due from them.

(15) After meeting the expenses on development works under sub-section(12), the balance amount shall be payable to the promoter.

*Agreement
of sale.*

6. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, a promoter who intends to construct or constructs a building or apartments, all or some of which are to be taken or are taken on ownership basis, or who intends to offer for sale plots in a colony, shall, before he accepts any sum of money as advance payment or deposit, which shall not be more than twenty five per cent of the sale price, enter into a written agreement for sale with each of such persons who are to take or have taken such apartments, or plots as the case may be, and the agreement shall be in the prescribed form together with prescribed documents :

Provided that, if only a refundable application fee is collected from the applicant before draw of lots for allotment, such agreement shall be required only after such draw of lots.

(2) The promoter shall not cancel unilaterally the agreement of sale entered into under sub-section (1) and if he has sufficient cause to cancel it, he shall give due notice to the other parties to the agreement and tender a refund of the full amount collected together with interest at the rate of twelve percent per annum.

(3) The agreement to be prescribed under sub-section (1) shall contain inter alia the particulars as hereunder specified in clause (a) in respect of apartments and as specified in clause (b) in respect of plots in a colony and to such agreement shall be attached the copies of the documents specified in clause (c),- ment of registration

14. (1) If the promoter without sufficient cause fails to execute the conveyance deed of apartment or plot and other relevant documents within three months in terms of the provisions of section 13, the person in possession of the apartment or plot in pursuance of the agreement of sale may make an application, in writing, in the prescribed form to the competent authority for a certificate to be produced before the concerned registering officer for enforcing the registration of the transfer and on receipt of such application and after making such enquiry as may be necessary and satisfying itself that occupation or completion certificate has been obtained from the authority required to do so under any law and the person in possession has done what he was required to do under the agreement of sale, the competent authority shall issue a certificate to the registering officer that it is a fit case for enforcing registration of the conveyance deed and direct the person who has taken the apartment or plot to present the conveyance deed of apartment or plot though not executed by the promoter for unilateral execution of registration.

(2) After the conveyance deed of apartment or plot along with the certificate issued by the competent authority under sub-section (1) is presented for registration, the registering officer shall cause a summons to be issued to the promoter and if the promoter fails to appear in compliance with the summons so issued, the execution of the instrument shall be deemed to be admitted by him and the registering officer shall proceed to register the instrument and if the promoter appears but denies execution of the conveyance deed, the registering officer, after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard, if satisfied that the promoter has failed to execute the conveyance deed without sufficient cause, shall proceed to register the same.

(3) If the promoter fails to execute a written agreement of sale as required under section 6, or fails to execute the conveyance deed of apartment or plot and other relevant documents as specified in sub-section (1), within three months, the competent authority may, either on a complaint or suo moto, impose for each plot or apartment for which there is a default, a penalty upto a maximum of five per cent of the price of the plot or the apartment or five thousand rupees, whichever is greater, and further minimum penalty for each plot or apartment of one hundred rupees for each day for which the default continues, and the penalty may be recovered as an arrears of land revenue.

(4) The penalty imposed under sub section (3) shall be in addition to any action taken under the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 or the Registration Act, 1908 and if a penalty is imposed under the provisions of any of these Acts, the promoter shall not be liable to penalty for the same offence under this Act or under any other law governing the apartment ownership.

15. (1) No promoter and no person who is responsible for the management and maintenance of a building or apartments, shall without just and sufficient cause, either by himself or through any person, cut off, withhold, curtail or reduce, any essential supply or service enjoyed in respect of such apartment or plot by the person who has taken or agreed to take an apartment or plot or by any person in occupation thereof through or under him.

*Promoter's
essential*

(2) If there is a contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1), the person who has taken or agreed to take the apartment or plot or the occupier thereof may make an application to the competent authority for a direction to restore such supply or service.

(3) If the competent authority on enquiry finds that the person referred to in sub-section (2) has been in enjoyment of the essential supply or service and that it was cut off or withheld or curtailed or reduced without just and sufficient cause, the competent authority shall make an order directing the restoration of such supply or service before a date to be specified in the order.

(4) If the supply or service is not restored before the date specified under sub-section (3), the promoter or the person responsible for the management and maintenance of the building or apartment or plot shall be liable, upon a further direction by the competent authority to that effect, to a penalty which may extend to one hundred rupees for each day during which the default continues thereafter.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, the competent authority shall have jurisdiction to decide any application made under sub-section (2), and no other court shall have jurisdiction to entertain such application and no appeal shall lie from any order made on such application:

Provided that the State Government may for the purpose of satisfying itself that the order made is according to law, call for the case in which such an order is made and may pass such order with respect thereto as it thinks fit.

(6) Any promoter or person responsible for the management and maintenance of building or apartment or plot, who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1), shall on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or, with fine, which may extend to five thousand rupees, or, with both.

(7) The offence under sub-section (6) shall be cognizable, and shall not be triable by any court inferior to that of Judicial Magistrate of the First Class.

Explanation-I.- In this section, "essential supply or service" includes the supply of water, electricity, lights in passages and on staircase, and lifts and conservancy or sanitary service.

Explanation-II.- For the purposes of this section withholding any essential supply or service shall include acts or omissions attributable to the promoter or the person responsible for the management and maintenance of the building or apartment, on account of which the essential supply of service is cut off by the local authority or any other authority.

of property.*

16. (1) A promoter who enters into a transaction for the transfer relating to a property shall,-

- (a) make full and true disclosure of the nature of his title to the property indicating clearly that his title to property has been duly certified by an Assistant Collector First Grade or Second Grade, as the case may be, after he has examined transactions concerning it in the previous ten years;
- (b) make full and true disclosure of all encumbrances on such property, including any right, title, interest or claim of any party in or over such property;
- (c) in case the property is land held on lease, produce consent from the lessor for the transaction;
- (d) in case the property is land, subject to the provisions of the Urban Land (Ceiling and Regulation) Act, 1976, produce clearance from the competent authority under that Act;
- (e) make full and true disclosure of any reservations, in the development plan framed under any law for the time being in force or restrictions on the use to which the property may be put and any liability to carry out any development works;
- (f) specify, in writing, the date by which possession of the property is to be handed over;
- (g) make full and true disclosure of all charges, including ground rent, if any, municipal or other local taxes, revenue assessment, interest on any mortgage or other encumbrance, development charges or charges for maintenance and upkeep of roads, drainage, sewerage, water supply, electricity, lay out and constructed by the Government or any local authority.

(2) No person shall issue a prospectus or advertisement offering for sale any property, unless the prospectus or advertisement indicates the place and time the documents and certificates relating to the matters specified in sub-section (1) are available for inspection.

(3) The provisions of sub-sections (4) and (5) of section 4 shall apply mutatis mutandis for mis-statements in the prospectus or advertisement issued under sub-section (2) of this section.

(4) The provisions of sections 11, 13 and 14 shall apply mutatis mutandis to a transaction of property made under this section.

*General

17. (1) Every allottee who has executed an agreement of sale to take an apartment or a plot under section 6 or any property under section 16 shall pay at the proper time and place, the price, the proportionate share of the municipal taxes, water and electricity charges, ground rent, if any, and other charges in accordance with the agreement of sale.

(2) Any person who has executed an agreement of sale of an apartment or plot or other property and who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with or contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to one per cent of the price of the apartment or plot or property, as the case may be, or one thousand rupees, whichever is greater.

18. Every person, erecting or re-erecting any structure in a colony in respect whereof a licence has been obtained under sub-section (3) of section 5, shall comply with such conditions regarding use of land, layout plan, zoning regulations, site coverage, height of building, set back lines, structural and sanitary requirements, architectural control, design of buildings and material to be used in erection thereof as may be prescribed. Restriction on structures in a colony.

CHAPTER III

REGISTRATION OF PROMOTERS AND ESTATE AGENTS

19. (1) From such date as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette specify, no person shall carry on the business of promoter or estate agent, or represent or hold himself out as carrying on such business, except under and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the certificate of registration granted under this Act. Registration compulsory.

(2) An application for registration under sub-section (1) as a promoter, or as an estate agent, as the case may be, shall be made along with a prescribed fee in the prescribed form to the competent authority, and the competent authority on receipt of the application may enter the name of the applicant in the register of promoter, or, in the register of estate agents, as the case may be, maintained under this Act in the prescribed form and grant a certificate of registration in the prescribed form to such person for the conduct of his business in accordance with the terms and conditions of the certificate of registration and the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder.

20. Before registering and granting a certificate of registration to a promoter or, an estate agent under the provisions of section 19, the competent authority shall satisfy itself,- Conditions for registration

- (a) in the case, if the application is for registration as a promoter, that the promoter himself or one of his employees, or one of the partners of the firm or one of the directors of the company if the applicant is a firm or company, as the case may be, possesses the prescribed qualifications for conducting the business of a promoter;
- (b) in the case, if the application is for registration as an estate agent, that the applicant possesses qualifications as may be prescribed;
- (c) that the applicant furnishes to the competent authority, either a bank guarantee or a security, for such amount and in such manner as may be prescribed;
- (d) that the applicant produces an income-tax clearance certificate from the income tax authorities; and

- (e) that the applicant has not been convicted of an offence under this Act or under any law involving moral turpitude, or, if convicted, a period of five years has elapsed since his conviction.

renewal
on.*

21. Every certificate of registration of a promoter or an estate agent under section 19 shall be valid for a period of five years and, on the expiry of such a period, it may be renewed for another period of five years by the competent authority, on an application along with the prescribed fee, made by the promoter or the estate agent in that behalf:

Provided that the conditions referred to in section 20 continue to be fulfilled and the application has been made at least three months before the expiry of the certificate of registration.

*Refusal to grant or renew
registration*

22. If, after giving the applicant an opportunity of being heard, the competent authority, refuses to grant or renew a certificate of registration, it shall record its reasons therefor in writing and communicate the same to the applicant.

*Cancellation
of registration.*

23. (1) A certificate of registration granted under section 19 shall be liable to be cancelled by the competent authority on the grounds mentioned in sub-section (2) and by an order made in writing recording the reasons for such cancellation.

(2) A certificate of registration is liable to be cancelled, if the promoter or estate agent, as the case may be,-

- (a) surrenders the certificate of registration as he does not wish to continue carrying on the business;
- (b) has applied to be adjudicated or has been adjudicated an insolvent or is an undischarged insolvent;
- (c) has been adjudicated to be of unsound mind by a competent court;
- (d) has been convicted of an offence under this Act or under any law involving moral turpitude, if convicted, a period of five years has not elapsed since his conviction;
- (e) has contravened any of the terms or conditions of the certificate of registration or any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder.

*Notice

24. (1) Before canceling a certificate of registration under section 23, the competent authority shall give notice to the promoter, or the estate agent, as the case may be, specifying the grounds and calling upon him to show-cause why the certificate of registration should not be cancelled.

(2) After considering the explanation, if any, offered by the promoter, or, the estate agent, as the case may be, the competent authority may cancel the certificate of registration, or pass such orders as it may deem fit.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2), the competent authority may suspend the certificate of registration of a promoter or an estate agent, as the case may be, pending decision on the matter of cancellation of the certificate of registration.

(4) Where any certificate of registration is suspended or cancelled under this Act, no person shall be entitled to any compensation or the refund of any fee paid in respect thereof.

25. When a certificate of registration is suspended or cancelled under the provisions of section 24 or when it expires and is not renewed, under the provisions of section 21, a promoter or estate agent, as the case may be, shall cease to carry on the business and any business or activity in furtherance of his business during the period of suspension or after the expiry or cancellation of the certificate of registration, shall be deemed to be carried on without any certificate of registration for the purpose of section 19 and shall be liable for all consequences thereof:

Carrying on business after cancellation.

Provided that, when decision is pending on an application for renewal of registration, no such presumption shall be made, if business is carried on after the expiry of the period of registration of certificate.

26. (1) Every registered promoter or estate agent shall maintain such accounts, registers and records in such form and manner as may be prescribed.

Maintenance of accounts and records.

(2) The competent authority shall maintain such register as may be prescribed showing sufficient particulars of all cases in which licence under section 5 or certificate of registration under this Chapter is granted or refused by him and the said register shall be available for inspection without charges by all interested persons and such persons shall be entitled to have extract therefrom on payment of fee as may be determined by competent authority.

27. The promoter or estate agent shall get his accounts audited after the close of every financial year by a chartered accountant, and shall produce a statement of accounts duly certified and signed by such chartered accountant in the manner prescribed and it shall be verified during the audit that amounts collected for a particular purpose are not utilized for any other purpose.

Audit.

28. Every registered promoter or estate agent shall submit to the competent authority such periodical returns as may be prescribed.

Periodical returns.

29. For the purpose of satisfying itself, that the requirements of this Act and the rules made thereunder or the terms and conditions of the certificate of registration granted under this Chapter or licence granted under section 5 of this Act of a promoter or an estate agent are duly complied with, the competent authority may inspect or cause to be inspected, at any time during business hours, any accounts or records of a promoter or an estate agent relating to such business.

Inspection.

CHAPTER IV

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

30. (1) Every promoter to whom a licence has been granted under section 5 to develop a colony or who stands exempted or to whom exemption is granted under section 42 shall deposit service charges at the rate of rupees ten per square metre of the plotted area proposed to be developed by him as residential, commercial or industrial (excluding the area used by the public for general purposes) into a colony in two equal instalments, the first instalment to be deposited within sixty days from the date of grant of licence and the second installment to be deposited within six months from the date of grant of licence and the promoter shall in turn be entitled to pass on the service charges so paid by him to the allottees.

Explanation. – In the case of a promoter exempted under section 42, the date of first inviting applications for the sale of plots in any colony by it shall be deemed to be the date for the purpose of depositing service charges.

(2) The amount of service charges levied under sub-section (1) if not paid within the stipulated period, shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue or the competent authority may cancel his licence after giving him an opportunity of being heard.

(3) The amount of service charges deposited by the promoter under sub-section (1) or recovered under sub-section (2) shall constitute a fund to be called “the Development Fund” (hereinafter referred to as the “Fund”) and shall vest in such Authority as the State Government may notify in this behalf and shall be administered by that authority.

(4) The Fund shall be utilized by the authority notified under sub-section (3) for the benefit of the allottees, for development of the colonies, to promote research and development in town and country and urban affairs, and for such other similar purposes as may be prescribed.

(5) The State Government shall publish annually in the Official Gazette the report of the activities financed from the Fund and the statement of accounts.

31. (1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint an officer or an authority as appellate authority, (hereinafter referred to as appellate authority) with the power to decide appeals against the orders of the competent authority:

Provided that the State Government may appoint as appellate authority more than one officer or authority and distribute the work among them in the manner it may deem fit.

(2) Any person aggrieved by any order of the competent authority under this Act, may, within a period of thirty days of the communication of the order to him, prefer an appeal to the appellate authority in such form and manner as may be prescribed.

(3) The appellate authority may, after giving an opportunity of being heard to the parties and to the competent authority, pass such order as deemed fit, either confirming, modifying or setting aside the order of the competent authority, and record its reasons in writing, and the order of the appellate authority so passed shall be final, unless revised by the State Government under section 32.

(4) In discharging its functions, the appellate authority shall have all the powers under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 of a Civil Court while deciding an appeal.

Revision.

32. The State Government, either suo moto, or, on an application from any party aggrieved by any order within sixty days of the date of the communication to him of such order, may call for and examine the record of any proceedings disposed of by the competent authority, or the appellate authority, as the case may be, for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the correctness, legality or propriety of any proceedings and of any order passed therein, and may pass such order in relation thereto as it may deem fit:

*V of

Provided that no order adverse to any person shall be passed without giving him an opportunity of being heard:

Provided further that no application for revision shall be entertained when an appeal has been or could have been filed against such order.

33. No civil court shall have any jurisdiction to entertain or decide any question relating to matters arising under this Act or the rules made thereunder and every order passed by the competent authority subject to appeal, or, revision, every order passed by the appellate authority subject to revision, and every order passed by the State Government in revision, shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court of law. Bar on jurisdiction

34. (1) Any person or promoter or estate agent who, without reasonable cause, fails to comply with or contravenes the provisions of sections 3, 5, 6,7 [save as provided in sub-section(2) of this section] or section 13 shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to three years, and with fine which shall not be less than ten thousand rupees but which may extend to one lakh rupees. Offences by persons or promoters or estate agents.

(2) Any promoter who contravenes the provisions of section 7 by misusing any amount advanced or deposited with him for any purpose other than the purposes mentioned in section 7, shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to five years, and with fine which shall not be less than twenty five thousand rupees but which may extend to two lakhs rupees or to the amount in respect of which the offence was committed, whichever is grater.

(3) Any person or promoter or estate agent who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with, or contravenes, any other provision of this Act or of any rule made thereunder, or does not pay the penalty imposed on him by the competent authority, shall, if no other penalty is expressly provided for the offence, be punished on conviction, with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which may extend to two years, and with fine which shall not be less than ten thousand rupees but which may extend to fifty thousand rupees:

Provided that imposition of penalty, conviction and fine shall not be deemed to regularize the unauthorized constructions, colonies and buildings, and the competent authority after giving a notice of 30 days and affording a reasonable opportunity of being heard, may demolish or remove such unauthorized constructions and expenses incurred in such demolition or removal shall be recovered from the owner of such building as arrears of land revenue.

(4) The fine imposed under sub-sections (1), (2) or (3) may be recovered as an arrears of land revenue and out of the fine so recovered, the Judicial Magistrate may award such amount as he deems fit to the person from whom the advance or deposit was obtained by the promoter or the estate agent, as the case may be.

Police Officers.*

35. It shall be the duty of every police officer, -

- (a) to communicate without delay to the competent authority or any other officer authorised in writing by him in this behalf, any information of which he receives of a design to commit or of the commission of any offence against this Act or any rule made thereunder ; and
- (b) to assist the competent authority or any other officer authorised in writing by him in this behalf, in the lawful exercise of any power vested in the competent authority or any other officer authorised in writing by him in this behalf under this Act or any rule made thereunder.

to arrest.*

36. (1) A police officer not below the rank of Sub-Inspector shall arrest any person who commits, in his view, any offence against this Act or any rule made thereunder, if the name and address of such person be unknown to him and if such person, on demand, declines to give his name and address or give such name or address which such officer has reason to believe to be false.

(2) The person so arrested shall, without unavoidable delay be produced before the Judicial Magistrate authorised to try the offence for which the arrest has been made and no person so arrested shall be detained in custody for a period exceeding twenty four hours without any order from the Judicial Magistrate.

*Offences
by companies.*

37. (1) If the person committing an offence under this Act is a company, the company as well as every person who at the time the offence was committed was in charge of, or, was responsible to the company for the conduct of business by the company, shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to such punishment provided in this Act, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge, or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed with the consent or connivance of or is attributable to any negligence on the part of any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation. - For the purpose of this section, -

- (a) “company” means a body corporate and includes a development authority or public authority, a firm or other association of persons; and
- (b) “director” in relation to firm means a partner in the firm, and in relation to a development authority or public authority means a person who takes decisions on matters of policy in its affairs.

38. (1) No prosecution for any offence punishable under this Act shall be instituted except on a complaint made by the competent authority or any person authorised in this behalf by it.

Prosecution and composition of offences.

(2) The competent authority may, either before or after the institution of the proceedings for prosecution, compound any offence punishable by or under this Act subject to such amount, such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed.

(3) Where an offence has been compounded, the offender, if in custody, shall be released and no further proceedings shall be taken against him in respect of the offence compounded.

39. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of this Act, the competent authority may, by notice, call upon any person who has committed a breach of the provisions of section 18 to show cause why the structure should not be demolished and if such person fails to show cause to the satisfaction of the competent authority within a period of fifteen days, the competent authority may pass an order requiring him to demolish the structure within sixty days from the date of the order.

Structure to be demolished in certain cases.

(2) If the order made under sub-section (1) is not complied with, within the period specified therein, the competent authority may itself take such measures as it may deem fit to give effect to the order and the cost of such measures shall, if not paid on demand being made to it, be recoverable from such person as arrear of land revenue.

40. (1) No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against any officer or employee of the State Government or of the competent authority in respect of anything which is, in good faith, done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or the rules made thereunder.

Indemnity.

41. The State Government may, by notification, delegate all or any of its powers under this Act, except the power to make rules, to any officer subordinate to it subject to such restrictions and conditions as may be specified in such notification.

Delegation.

42. (1) Save as provided in section 30, nothing in this Act shall apply if the promoter is, - Exemption.

- (a) a local authority or statutory body constituted for the development of land or housing; or
- (b) a company or a body created for development of land or housing or promotion of industry wholly owned and controlled by the State Government or the Central Government.

(2) If the State Government is of the opinion that, the operation of any of the provisions of this Act, causes undue hardship, or circumstances exist which render it expedient to do so, it may exempt, by a general or special order, any class of persons or areas from all or any of the provisions of this Act, subject to such terms and conditions as it may impose.

43. (1) The State Government may, subject to the condition of previous publication, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

Power to make rules.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:-

- (a) the particulars as respects the design and the materials to be used in the construction of the building and the other information and documents to be disclosed, the manner in which disclosure is to be made and the documents of which true copies shall be given by the promoter under clause (f), (m) and (n) of sub-section (2) of section 3;
- (b) the other matters to be disclosed in an advertisement or prospectus under sub-section (2) of section 4;
- (c) the form of the application, the information to be attached with the application and the fee to be paid for the grant of permission under sub-section (1) of section 5;
- (d) the authority to be prescribed for giving opinion to the competent authority under sub-section (2) of section 5;
- (e) the form of licence to be issued and the agreement to be entered it under sub-section (3) of section 5;
- (f) the fee to be paid for renewal of licence under sub-section (4) of section 5;
- (g) the criteria of the economically weaker sections of society and the manner of reserving residential apartments or plots for weaker sections of society and the conditions subject to which the reservation is to be made under sub-section (8) of section 5;
- (h) the form for the agreement of sale and the particulars and conditions to be contained in and the documents or copies thereof to be attached to such agreement under sub-section (1) of section 6;
- (i) the fee to be paid under sub-section (2) of section 9;
- (j) the particulars to be included in respect of conveyance deed of apartment under section 13;
- (k) the form of application under sub-section (1) of section 14;
- (l) the matters to be prescribed under section 18;
- (m) the form of application for registration of promoters and estate agents and the fee for such application, form for maintenance of registers and the form of registration certificate under sub-section (2) of section 19;
- (n) the qualifications for a promoter and for an estate agent and the amount and manner of security to be furnished under section 20;

- (o) the fee for renewal of registration under section 21;
- (p) the form and manner of maintaining accounts, registers and records by a promoter or estate agent under sub-section (1) and maintenance of register by the competent authority under sub-section (2) of section 26;
- (q) the manner in which the accounts shall be audited and certified by a chartered accountant under section 27;
- (r) the periodical returns which a promoter or estate agent has to submit to the competent authority under section 28;
- (s) the purposes to be prescribed under sub-section (4) of section 30;
- (t) form and manner in which an appeal shall be preferred to the appellate authority under sub-section (2) of section 31; and
- (u) any other matter which has to be or may be prescribed by rules.

(3) Every rule made under this section shall be laid as soon as may be, after it is made, before the House of the State Legislature, while it is in session for a total period of fourteen days, which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the successive sessions aforesaid, the House agrees in making any modification in the rule, or the House agrees that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so however, that any such modifications or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done or omitted to be done under that rule.

44. (1) The Himachal Pradesh Apartment and Property Regulation Ordinance, 2005 is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the Ordinance so repealed, shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Act.
